Fine Dining

Over the years, Killarney Lodge's dining lodge has earned a reputation for fine country cuisine.

Slowly simmered soups, fresh salads, delicately seasoned fish, traditional roasts and tender poultry dishes – followed by delicious homemade desserts.

The dining lodge is open to the public for lunch and dinner. Dinner reservations are recommended.

Dress

Dress is informal and most guests come to dinner "smart casual."

Gratuities

While many Ontario resorts add a service charge to guests' bills, we do not. Gratuities for service, left at your discretion, are much appreciated by our staff. Most guests leave 10%–15% when settling their account, which is then distributed to all our staff.

Sales Taxes

Our rates are subject to the Goods and Services Tax (5%) and the Ontario Sales Tax (5%).

Pets

We accept well-behaved dogs in our Shoreline and two-bedroom cabins on the mainland. For terms, please visit our website. (Another option is boarding kennels, available in nearby Huntsville.)

A Toronto columnist describes Killarney Lodge...

Through the trees stands Killarney Lodge, looking as if it had come to life from the pages of a child's book of fairy tales. The 70-year-old lodge is a log construction landscaped naturally with multi-coloured flowers. The interior exudes a warmth that comes from decades of loving care rather than a decorator's drawing board.

The owners present a caring, confident and personal hospitality – the kind that captures the heart and brings guests back year after year.

We hope you will join us in Algonquin Park this year!
